

The DAILY APPEAL

MEMPHIS, OCTOBER 25, 1852.

CATHOLIC FAIR.—The attractive Catholic Fair is still open at the Old Fair Grounds.

THEATRE.—Mr. Aten has engaged the eminent tragedian GOURGE; he is a fine performer.

LEADERS' FAIR will close Friday evening with the sale, by auction, of articles remaining.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was mild in temperature, but cloudy and threatening; had a slighting rain set in.

ALARMS.—An alarm of fire was given between eight and nine o'clock last night, but it proved to be false.

A pair of silver spectacles was left in the Appeal Editorial Room a day or two since, which the owner can have by calling for them.

A CHIMNEY at the alarum at the rear of the Galaxy, was on fire last night. The fire bells ring and the companies hurried out, but the flames were extinguished without damage.

THE FAIR.—The cars run frequent intervals to the Fair at the charge of a dime; it is the best day of exhibition and now should miles attending.

HISTORICAL.—The history of the present in Memphis may be written in a few significant words: pane, suspension, stagnation, vexation and botheration.

DR. HOGUE.—Dr. Hogue, who was wounded on Wednesday, was thought by his physician to be better last night the feverish symptoms had left him.

GAIETY.—The OPERA TRAGEDY at the Galaxy, deserves most eloquent approbation in the highest order.

Those who value what is loftiest in harmony should not fail to visit them.

MARSHALS OBSERVE in the St. Louis Review that one of its editors, JAMES F. GRAY, Esq., has been and done so; he was married on the 11th to Miss SALLIE ANN HAYES, of Mayfield, Ky. We wish the newly married pair blies and prosperity.

ITALIA.—Dr. BEALE, the proprietor of WAGGON's celebrated panorama of Italy, paid us a visit last night, he intended exhibiting here, but being unable to obtain a room, he was obliged to postpone the exhibition until next spring.

GOOD ADVICE.—If you wish to prosper spite of tight circumstances, get a copy of a weekly circulating paper for the purpose. If you want to advertise in a widely circulating paper, address in the Appeal.

The longest pole knocks the perambulator.

HOGS IN KENTUCKY.—The assessors in Kentucky report the number of hogs in that State this year at 1,322,588, which is an increase of 318,404 over 1851, and of 26,388 over 1850.—The long hog chases, however, have prevailed to a considerable extent since the enumeration was made.

THE State of Tennessee is composed of 20 counties, the cities of which are in 47 of the 95 towns, 20 of which are in 20 (Speaker BROWN, Benton Tennessee 20) in North Carolina 11; so New Hampshire 11; Virginia 2; Georgia 1. Married 11; single 2; widowers 2. Farmers 9; Lawyers 11; Physicians 1; Merchants 3; Merchants 1; Physician 1.

COURT.—This Court was engaged yesterday, with the trial of the case of the State vs. STEPHEN BURNETT, charged with setting fire to the store house of Messrs. WASH & BARKER. The prosecution was conducted by Attorney General S. C. COOPER, and the defense by Mr. HARRISON JENNINGS, Administrator, C. C. ANDERSON, Administrator.

GRAND JURY.—At the time of the trial.

Administrators' Notice.—THE UNDERSIGNED having received letters addressed to him, dated October 18, 1852, from the Hon. W. H. GALT, of the Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Hon. J. L. BEASLEY, Esq., in their capacity as Administrators of the Estate of the late Mrs. STEPHEN BURNETT, deceased, at the October term of the Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee, do hereby notify all to make immediate payment, and furnish all documents, etc., which may be due to the Estate, and which were duly acknowledged, within the time legally prescribed.
